Dedication

It is sometimes difficult to say which period in the life of a college is the most important and the most influential in the development of that institution. However, we believe that the formative years are the most important in shaping of destiny.

Twenty-five years ago, in the years of infancy of Murray State College, those to whom we dedicate this book were holding the raw clay of our college. They saw a college campus somewhere in the future—perhaps 1959—and this campus was to be the Murray State of today and of tomorrow. But the vision could be realized only after their skillful hands had had an opportunity to mold and shape a particular niche in the ivy walls.

These people might be called sculptors of M.S.C.—they gave it life, they gave it shape, and they also gave part of themselves to mold the college we love.

We salute them by dedicating with humble pride and sincere appreciation the SHIELD of 1959.

Foreword

This year—1958-59—has been a full year, a memorable year at Murray State College. As you look about the campus, and see the evidence of spring, you feel this. You feel that even though your day as a Senior here is over, there will be another day—another year started by this spring. And you wonder why you came here and why your leaving is wrapped up in some mystery of education. Perhaps for one of the few times in your college life, you stop and think. You remember the many times and under the many circumstances you have walked under the same trees and by the same familiar buildings, and have seen the same friendly people, and you are glad. You are glad of the many friends you have made, because some of them have become a part of you. And you are glad of the memories that are woven so intricately into your life of the last four years. Through your mind flash memories of a year . . . two years . . . four . . . a time measured by classes, friends, coffee breaks, dates, finals . . . a thousand things . . . memories. We of the SHIELD staff have tried to catch these memories and fuse them into the 1959 SHIELD. We all hope that it will be worthy of the memories it represents.

The Classes

Senior Class Officers

Lindsay Freeman, Millicent King, Stan Doden, Don Jones.

The Senior year at Murray State College—with it is the tying together of strings, and the solving of many puzzles, for these strings and puzzles have made up most of the joy we received from achievement. And now we see the pattern and understand, perhaps only vaguely, that we are being prepared to become part of a mature adult world which will be somewhat different from our college campus. And we are willing to meet that world's challenge with wonder in ourselves, and pride in our education.

Junior Class Officers

Mark Mahan, Richard Lewis, Ernestine Batten, Art Bauernfeind.

The Junior year at Murray State College—with it came the realization that it was time to be definite about the future and concentrate fully on study and accomplishment. We had been told by someone that our Junior year would be the easiest one, but oh, how we'd been misled! This year was the year that set the foundation for our final year, and we learned that we must make that foundation solid and secure. So on we worked for that day when we would be looked upon by others, not as nondescript college students, but as anchored Seniors who were sure of the future and had learned as much as possible from books and people met at college.

Martha Thompson, Sandra Baughman, Johnnie Gentry, Bobby Collins.

The Sophomore year at Murray State College—with it some of the newness has changed to familiarity, and it was good to get back to the old campus and in the swing of things again. Somehow the plans we made this summer were not as easily carried out as we expected, but we did study and work a little more than last year. Of course, we had fun too, and we learned the valuable lesson of a balanced diet in work and fun. We began to take more seriously the ideals and ideas that had been handed us as Freshmen, and we began to think that perhaps there was something to this business of seriously deciding on a definite goal and future. We have two more years to go, and they must not be wasted.

Freshman Class Officers

Charles Barlow, Judy O'Neil, Charles Hinson, Nancy Summerville.

With the Freshman year at Murray State College comes a feeling of newness and a sense of not quite belonging. But as this year comes to an end, that feeling has gradually been replaced by a sense of being a part of college life—of realizing that there is studying and hard work to be done. We've had knocks and we've learned to expect and handle them. We've learned to expect fairness, but nothing more from our professors and our classmastes, and to expect from ourselves the ability to live up to responsibility. This is partly what we have learned as Freshmen. The other numerous facts, places, faces, ideals, and ideas cannot be expressed on paper. If this is the result of one year of work, what will this be when multiplied by four.

Graduate School

This year there are one hundred and fifty individuals attending graduate school part time, and twenty-three attending full time. These people are studying for a Master of Arts in Education so that they might further prepare themselves for secondary and elementary teaching, and for positions as principals, supervisors, superintendents, directors of pupil personnel guidance and counsellors. The Master of Arts degree is granted to those who have completed a four-year curriculum for the education of elementary or secondary teachers, or those holding a teaching certificate based on four years of college preparation. It provides a fifth-year professional program that will qualify teachers for permanent certification in their fields of concentration, and qualifies in-service teachers for administrative and supervisory positions.

The FACULTY

Board of Regents

HONORABLE A. B. CHANDLER
Governor of Kentucky

The Board of Regents of Murray State College—these are the men behind the scenes—the men who gather information, and know, and plan, and hope for a better future in an ever-increasing Murray State. These all-important men from all areas of the state set up the budget for the college. They work together and accomplish all that is possible for you, the student. Their accomplishments are made through endeavor, wisdom, experience, energy, and an undying faith in the future of Murray State College—in you.

The Murray State College Board of Regents

Dr. Ralph H. Woods for the past fourteen years has served as the enthusiastic and seemingly tireless president of MSC. Although his duties have multiplied with the rapid expansion of the college, he has never lost his personal interest in each student.

Dr. Woods has guided the school to an enrollment past the two-thousand mark. Since he became president he has brought about many additions to the campus facilities including a new women's residence hall, a field house, a science building, and most recently the beautiful new student union building. This has been done with foresight and dignity. His years of experience in the betterment of education not only on the Murray State campus but also on the state and national levels has made Dr. Woods one of the most valuable men in the field.

Dr. and Mrs. Woods live on the college campus at Oakhurst, a symbol of serene dignity. Often students see this tall distinguished gentleman walking from his home to make a tour of the buildings and grounds. They see him hail Joe College on his way to class. They see him stop for a moment to inspect—and reflect. And if they could read his thoughts, they would see a page in the future of MSC that few dare to imagine. The college has grown with him—or perhaps we should say because of him. This is our president, Dr. Woods, we salute you.

The President

Deans

DEAN WILLIAM G. NASH

Dean Nash serves Murray State as Dean of the College. He co-ordinates the various departments of the school into a functional pattern of operation, and advises and directs the constant changes in class curriculum. His guidance serves as an assurance that the steps we are taking toward an education are in the right direction.

DEAN J. MATT SPARKMAN

Dean Sparkman is a man of great energy and understanding. He must be, for as Dean of Students he works closely and directly with the student body. A fine sense of humor is a handy reference for the Dean as he co-ordinates student activities, grants student loans, and advises the Student Organization. He is always willing to help students with personal problems, for he feels that the well-being of all those enrolled at MSC rests largely in his hands.

DEAN LILLIAN TATE

Knowing, advising, and administering to the women enrolled in Murray State is the job of Miss Lillian Tate, Dean of Women. She performs her duties with the proficiency and charm that should be characteristic of a person of her position. She serves not only in an advisory capacity, but as an attractive representative of MSC wherever she goes.

The College News serves to incorporate current ideas, attitudes, actions, and achievements of both the student body and administration into a factual, unified bi-weekly report.

Its staff comprises advanced journalism students whose future intentions involve careers in either secondary education or professional newspaper work. Staff adviser is Prof. R. D. Payne.

First published in 1926, the College News has received superior ratings on the national level for the past six years. The Associated Collegiate Press award, the All-American, has been won each semester since 1953, and the Columbia Scholastic Press Association award, the Medalist, has been won each year since 1955.

Ralph Anderson, Editor; Nancy Rasco, Associate Editor; and Mr. Payne, Faculty Advisor; discuss the forthcoming issue of the COLLEGE NEWS.

The student organization is made up of members elected by the student body annually. These members act as intermediary between the administration and the student body. They supervise student-sponsored activities and expand and promote interest in student affairs. They are the individuals who provide the means for the clear expression of student opinion, and foster in every way possible student character and initiative.

This organization of representatives was formed and the constitution ratified during the latter part of 1936. It functions through the student council, whose members have at heart the best interest of the individual student because each member is himself a student.

Cheerleaders

Martha Schmidt, captain of the Thoroughbred Cheerleaders, is in her second year as a peppy booster of our teams. Martha Sammons, who has served three years, Shannon Beasley and Jackita White, who have served two years each, Nancy Morgan and Gail Harrington, both in their first year, and Aliene Hodge and Carolyn Story, alternates, are all right with Captain Schmidt in enthusiasm and endeavor to carry this enthusiasm over to the sports crowds.

These energetic girls have no easy task in decorating goal posts, working during Homecoming, making shakers, leading pep rallies, organizing a high school cheerleader's workshop, and working with the coaches to build school spirit. They are elected on a point system by the student organization and three faculty members.

Campus Lights

This year's Campus Lights was the twenty-second annual production sponsored by Phi Mi Alpha and Sigma Alpha Iota. It was staged, directed, and written entirely by college students. This year's production was unified by a time machine theme operated by a mad scientist. The central characters, Dave Chambers, and Nancy Adams, were transported into the past, the present, and the future. This traveling offerred many unusual situations for skits which were cleverly written by Richard Perry and Bill Nettleton.

Bill Moates did an excellent job with the dance choreography—this year's dancing chorus was outstanding. Part of the credit goes to Bill's two assistants—Lil Harrington and Devon Jackson. The college orchestra and chorus, the Madrigal Singers, and the Murray Men provided the musical backing for the show. Outstanding individual performances were given by Jim Godsey at the piano and by Louise Kershaw playing the flute. Ed Lacy, Director of 1959 Lights and his assistant, Roger Reichmuth, spent months of preparation making this year's show a musical production almost professional in quality.

Certainly students at Murray enjoy Campus Lights, as did more than five thousand people from the surrounding area who attended the performances.

Director Ed Lacy and assistant director Roger Reichmuth.

The Murray State College Thoroughbred Hour is a daily radio show broadcast through Station WNBS from the studio in Wilson Hall.

The Thoroughbred Hour, now in its second year of broadcasting, was organized in an attempt to keep MSC students informed of campus happenings.

Production of the show is managed by the Student Radio Board whose members are Murray State students.

Officers of the board are Joe Darnall, Production Manager, and Nancy Rasco, Program Manager. Dr. Frank Steely, Miss Rezina Senter, and Mr. James Harris are faculty advisors.

Dramatics

The Murray State Theatre is under the direction of Professor Johnson, who endeavors to select plays and dramatic activities which will be most appreciated by a college audience, and which will best train the students of drama for teaching and professional work.

This year Frederick Knott's Dial M For Murder, Henric Ibsen's Ghosts, and John Van Druten's comedy Bell, Book, and Candle were presented by the Murray players. The Children's Theatre production was The Emperor's New Clothes, and was in co-operation with the American Association of University Women. The dramatics department also sponsored the Vanderbilt University Players in R. U. R. by Karl Kapec.

Professor Johnson attempts, through dramatic productions, to provide training for teachers of drama, and to give background for work so that the person not planning to teach may enrich himself in the arts. Through Children's Theatre, a service is performed to the western Kentucky schools, and provision is made for the drama student to study a different theatre and a different audience psychology.

The Murray State Marching Band.

The music department is one of the vital aspects of the life of Murray State. It provides not only training for professional musicians and teachers of music, but supplies the campus and area with better music. This is accomplished through various activities.

This year the college chorus in connection with the A Capella choir presented The Messiah at Christmas time. This was under the direction of Mr. Robert Baar, director of the A Capella choir, and Mr. Blain Ballard, director of the college chorus. The choir also has presented several other programs throughout the year and has made trips to the surrounding area for concerts. This, plus the Murray State College Band, which is under the direction of Mr. Paul Shahan, the annual production of Campus Lights, and the Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Professor Richard Farrall, has made for favorable and widespread publicity for the college.

Each year the music department holds a series of quad-state festivals including band, choral, and string festivals. These activities are organized and directed by Professor Josiah Darnall.

In addition to this, there are three children's concerts held each year. These concerts include band, orchestra and A Capella choir work, and seek to give an appreciation of music to the twenty-five thousand children that they reach.

The Symphony Orchestra.

Debate

The Murray State College debate team is sponsored and coached by Professor J. Albert Tracy, of the speech department. This year for the seventh year, the novice debators presented a debate to the various high schools in Western Kentucky. The topic of this debate was: "Resolved that the United States should adopt the essential features of the Russian, British, or French System of Education." Another service to the schools in this area was the sponsorship of the eleventh annual high school debate workshop last fall.

The intercollegiate debate squad consisting of Larry Blubmn, Ed Brooks, Ainara Wilder, and Martha Gunter, had as the topic of debate: "Resolved that the further development of nuclear weapons should be prohibited by international agreement." Meets were held at South East Missouri, Western Kentucky State, and Millsaps College. There was a triangular meet with Vanderbilt and Southeast Missouri State at Murray, and a triangular meet with Vanderbilt and David Lipscomb College in Nashville. The debators also competed in the Magnolia Tournament at Columbus, Mississippi, and the Southern Speech Association at Louisville.

Murray's debate group is an institutional member of Tau Kappa Alpha Speech Fraternity, and seeks to promote mental discipline and personality development through speech activities.

ORGANIZATIONS

Sigma Sigma Sigma

The spotlight falls on Sigma Sigma Sigma and in the beam stands a girl who symbolizes sorority. She smiles, and in the warmth of this smile one sees friendship, love, and sisterhood. Tri Sigma spirit shines through the eyes of this girl who proudly wears the triangle badge. A pearl . . . a violet . . . a Sigma song . . . these are in her treasure chest of college memoirs. And leaving college and her chapter is not the end of sorority for she still clasps the hands of her sisters who form a chain reaching from Alpha Chapter 1898, to Omega Chapter which is eternal. . . the light fades . . . but not her Sigma love for she will remain . . . faithful unto death.

Alpha Sigma Alpha

Alpha Sigma Alpha sorority was founded in 1901 at Longwood College, Virginia, and was installed as Beta Nu Chapter on the campus in 1946.

The aim of Alpha Sigma Alpha is to develop its members socially, spiritually, intellectually, and physically.

In the sorority we find unfailing stimulation for personal growth and highest standards for all individuals and cooperative endeavors.

As we practice sharing and understanding and growing in Alpha Sigma Alpha we learn the true meaning of friendship and the inestimable joy that will extend far beyond the bonds of our sorority.

The Alpha Tau Omega Club was formally installed on the Murray State Campus, September 22, 1958. It evolved from Beta Tau Beta, a local social fraternity, founded March 3, 1957.

The aims of the Alpha Tau Omega Club are to instill in its members scholarship, fellowship, and character. Emphasis is placed primarily on scholarship. The Alpha Tau Omega Fraternity has led all "old time" fraternities with the most chapters above the all-male average for the past two years.

We of the Alpha Tau Omega Club anticipate being formally installed as a chartered chapter of Alpha Tau Omega Fraternity this year.

To have ever at heart the best interests of my fraternity; to foster a feeling of helpful brotherhood; to be true and honest with my brothers and all my other associates as well; to be in no sense a snob; to be loyal to my college and to advance her good name in whatever way I am able; to place class standing before social position; to merit the confidence and esteem of my instructors; in my private life to be pure and noble; to commit no deed which will bring shame to my fraternity; in my life's work to be as true, as honest, as loyal, as pure, as worthy—in short, to be a man, in the best sense of the word, and thus fulfill the highest ideals for which Pi Kappa Alpha must ever stand.

EPSILON TAU CHAPTER

Sigma Chi was founded on June 28, 1855, at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, as the third member of the famous Miami Triad, the other two being Beta Theta Pi and Phi Delta Theta. Sigma Chi is the second largest fraternity in membership, and the fifth largest in number of active chapters. Epsilon Tau is the 132nd active chapter.

Sigma Chi, with 160 alumni chapters, has the largest group of participating alumni in the fraternity world.

The Sigma Chi Foundation for educational and charitable purposes, is the wealthiest Fraternal Foundation, of the Greek Letter groups.

An organization, unique among college fraternities, known as the Sigmas of Sigma Chi, was founded in 1919, by Sigma Chi wives.

LIFE Magazine has called Sigma Chi "The most solid of all college fraternities."

The Murray State Veterans Club was organized in 1952 to help returning veterans adjust both to civilian and college life and to help introduce them to men with interests similar to their own. The club maintains a modern clubroom

The Murray State College Home Economics Club, an affiliate of the American Home Economics Association, sponsors the Annual Homecoming Mum Sale for the purpose of giving a scholarship in home economics at MSC to a deserving high school senior. The Home Ec Club also works with Alumnae Scholarship which was awarded for the first time in 1957-58.

The creed of the Home Economics Club clearly states the ideals and objectives of our organization toward which we constantly strive.

First in strength of character, or constancy and purity, for which we all strive. Wisdom—with this goal in mind we strive to raise our standards of scholarship, and to be ever of open and unprejudiced minds. Our next goal is good health—the health that flushes our cheeks, banishes sickness and gives us energy to perform our daily tasks. Surely there is no nobler aim than to seek beauty, which is our next goal—beauty in character, in appearance, in nature, in home and in the growth of the soul. Our fifth aim is service. In adopting this goal we hope to make our own contribution to the great work of the world. We shall remember that the tasks of home and school are full worthy of our best service. Our last symbol is that of fire and we must do our part to keep it replenished with the fuel of kindness, patience and love.

Alumni Association

Every alumnus has a part in the well-being of Murray State College; because as it grows in stature and recognition, the "Murray background" becomes more valuable.

The Murray State College Alumni Association offers alumni an opportunity to contribute to the growth and stature of their college by organizing them into a group whose aim is to promote the college in all ways possible.

The Association sponsors Homecoming and the Alumni Banquet—two highlights of each school year. It also publishes the Murray State College Alumnus, sends the College News to each member, helps to form district alumni groups, plans and promotes such things as class reunions, and provides two scholarships each year for deserving students.

This year the association has sponsored a drive for funds with which to build a memorial to the College's founder, Dr. Rainey T. Wells.

Each Murray graduate can help the association to extend the scope of its activities by becoming a member and taking an active role in its affairs.

During the spring of the 1958 football season and carrying over into the summer the outlook for the Thoroughbreds was good, but generally optimistic.

The Breds were strong at every position except quarterback and end. It was believed that end could take care of itself but only Wade Harper was available for the quarterback slot. However, it was further believed that if injury could stay away from Harper, the Racers could be a contender in the OVC.

However, two weeks before the opening of the season, Harper received a knee injury in practice which kept him out for the first four weeks of the season.

Murray 6; East Tennessee 12

Without a quarterback who had ever played in a college ball game, Murray opened the season in Cutchin Stadium against the conference's newest member, East Tennessee.

After a scoreless first half, The Breds' Jimmy Chapman recovered a Tennessee fumble on the visitor's 37. Ten plays and two five-yard penalties later, the ball rested on the one yard line. From here Jack Morris plunged into the end zone.

East Tennessee tied the score and went ahead on two Murray mistakes Murray fumbled on the seven to setup the first score in the third quarter.

In the first period ETSC intercepted a Murray pass on their own 28 and carried it back to the Murray 31. Six plays and a 15-yard penalty found the ball resting in the Murray end zone for the tie-breaking touchdown.

Murray 20; Florence 6

The second week of the season Murray evened its record at 1-1 with an impressive 20-6 victory over Florence State on the loser's home field.

Murray scored two touchdowns in the fourth quarter which erased a 6-6 tie. The tie-breaking score came on the first play of the final period when quarterback Buddy Parker flipped a 26-yard scoring pass to end Dick Stout.

After halfback Bill Schade bucked over for the extra point, giving the Racers a 14-6 lead, halfback Dick Vincek recovered a Florence fumble on the ensuing kickoff.

Joe Cartwright, sub halfback, scored five plays later from the one to send Murray into a commanding 20-6 lead. Vincek was stopped short of the mark on the conversion.

Murray State's first tally came in the first period when fullback Jack Morris bulled over from the three. The scoring drive started at the 26 where Morris recovered a Florence fumble.

The third week of the season the Breds suffered their second defeat of the year at the hands of the Eastern maroons.

The Maroons put together a 55-yard drive in the final two minutes of the first half and added another seven points in the fourth period which was enough for the victory.

Murray scored the first time they got their hands on the ball in the first quarter. After the Maroons drove to the Breds 45, Murray marched 55 yards in 15 plays to take a 6-0 lead. Vincek carried the final eight yards.

The fourth week of the season saw the Racers lose its third game when they met the Louisville Cardinals. It was Louisville all of the way, as the Cardinals smashed the Bred 27-0.

Murray 34; Morehead 6

The fifth week of the campaign Murray's offense came to life for its best show of the year as the Breds blasted the Morehead Eagles 34-6 in Cutchin Stadium.

Murray registered their first six points in the second period with Harper scoring after Bill Taylor recovered a Tech fumble on the Eagle 34. Harper added the two point conversion.

Early in the second half, Morris broke into the clear and the Breds lead 14-0. However, Tech came back to score twice and added a one and two point conversion for the victory.

Evansville had little trouble with the Breds the following week. After building up a 20-0 lead in the first half, the Aces coasted to a simple 27-8 victory.

Harper passed to Bill Schade for Murray's only touchdown late in the first half. Harper added the two point conversion with a sneak.

and fought off a fourth quarter surge to down the Toppers 12-7.

The Breds had many heroes, including the student body who displayed the best school spirit in many years. The students climaxed the contest by removing both goal posts in celebrating the victory.

The Murray line, spearheaded by center Bill Taylor, tackles Bob Burton and Jimmy Chapman, guard Willie Hickerson, and end Marvin Kaiser, played its best defensive game of the year.

Many standouts were also noted in the Breds backfield. Buddy Parker quarterbacked his best game of his one-year college career. Bill Schade, playing in his final game for the Racers, also turned in his best game of the year. Corky Carman and Jack Morris both performed superbly.

The Breds broke the scoring ice the second time they took possession of the ball in the first quarter. The scoring drive carried 74 yards with Schade doing most of the ball carrying. Morris scored from the one and attempted the two point conversion with a plunge, but was stopped one yard short of the goal.

Murray scored again late in the half on a 25-yard romp by Carman. A pass missed on the conversion so led 12-0.

The Murray line stopped the Toppers on the one early in the fourth period, but the Big Red came back to score midway in the period and added the kick. Murray's lead was cut to 12-7 which was how the game ended.

The Breds lost seven seniors after the 1958 season. They are: halfbacks Ronnie Babb and Bill Schade; guards, Ab Davis, Cleatus Cagle, and Willie Hickerson; and Marvin Kaiser and tackle Carl Feddler.

The Breds will have several lettermen returning for next year plus a couple of newcomers. The first goal for next year will be to improve on this year's 3-7 record.

Terry Darnall drives in for a back-hand lay-up in the New Mexico A & M game.

Ken Wray gets off a one-hander against the Eastern Maroons.

Mike O'Riordan pulls off a rebound against Eastern.

John Brooks closely guards a Mississippi State player who tries a two-hander.

Harold Wilkins dashes in for two points against Florida State.

Dale Alexander puts the shot in over the finger tips of an Eastern man.

When the Murray basketball team began practice last November they were tabbed by their new coach Cal Luther as thin, inexperienced, and short on talent.

This prediction proved to be mostly correct as the season progressed. The Breds dressed only eleven men for the varsity games, and a great deal of the weight was given to the sophomores on the team.

They began the season very strong but tapered off as the inexperience caught up with them. They posted a 3-9 conference record and did well against non-conference foes with a 7-6 mark.

The OVC was stronger this year than in several seasons and the Racers faced many strong non-conference foes.

The Breds got off to a good start with two victories against teams from the West at Murray. Murray defeated Texas Wesleyan 70-56 in the opener and downed New Mexico at Murray the same week 66-51.

In both contests Dale Alexander was the top scorer with 16 points in the first game and 17 against A&M, Ken Peterson was next in line with 12 tallies in each game.

The Breds traveled to the Southeastern conference for their next opponent in the University of Mississippi at Oxford. Murray grabbed an early lead but cooled off to be defeated 67-61. Peterson, Mike O'Riordan, and Terry Darnall all scored 11 points for the losers.

The Breds returned home to meet Mississippi State, another SEC team. Murray fought the nationally ranked team till the final second and was edged out 63-62. All-American center Bailey Howell, who averaged near 30 points a game for the year, was held to only 18 points by Peterson. In the scoring department, Alexander, Darnell and Peterson accounted for Murray's double figure scoring with 14 and 13 and 12, respectively.

The Blue and Gold trounced helpless Union University 95-48 in their next home game with Darnell leading the way with 21 points. O'Riordan injured a finger in this contest and was hampered for the next five games.

Murray obtained sweet revenge in their next game with an 80-60 victory over the University of Mississippi at Murray. The Racers jumped into a 22-11 lead midway in the first half and led 36-23 at the end of the half. Murray maintained their 20 point lead during the final half for the win. Alexander paved the way for the Breds with 11 field goals and three free throws for 25 points.

Murray participated in two tournaments during the holiday season placing sixth in one and third in the other.

The Breds lost the first game of the tournament 66-60, although Murray outshot the host team 38 per cent to 36 per cent. Peterson led the scoring with 15 points followed by Darnall with 14 and O'Riordan with 12.

In the first game of the consolation bracket, the Racers downed Spring Hill, 76-58, hitting 40 per cent of their field goal attempts. Darnall collected 17 points, Alexander 16, and O'Riordan and Peterson 15 each.

In the finals of the consolation bracket, the Breds were beaten by William and Mary 64-62 with Darnall chipping in 14 points.

Murray met Spring Hill again in the first game of the Senior Bowl tournament but this time the host team had a torrid first half and coasted to an 80-73 victory. Harold Wilkins was top man for the Breds with 24 points while Alexander, Peterson, and Darnall collected 11 each.

The Thoroughbreds met Tennessee Tech in the consolation game and defeated the Eagles 74-71 to take third place. Wilkins again was the leading scorer with 20 points and Darnall and Alexander added 16 and 15 respectively.

Murray journeyed back to Murray for their first OVC contest with Tech. The Breds came from behind late in the game to win 69-61. Alexander and Darnall lead the scoring for the locals with 17 points each.

Eastern came to town for the next OVC contest and showed why they were conference champs. The Maroons had to battle but downed the Breds 77-69.

Murray hit the road again, moving to Bowling Green and the Western Hilltoppers. The Toppers pulled the victory out in two overtimes 87-77 although Murray led most of the regulation game. Darnall led all scorers with 30 points.

Murray recorded another OVC win in Murray at the expense of East Tennessee 73-62. After the first minute Murray lead all of the way with Darnall pouring in 18 points.

Murray returned the game with Mississippi State in Starkville. The Racers battled during the first half to lead 31-30 at the halfway point. However, the Breds cooled off in the second half to lose 63-48. Wilkins and Alexander led Murray scoring with eight points each.

of the Middle Tennessee Blue Raiders 84-66 on the winner's floor. Peterson was high man with 15 markers.

East Tennessee evened the year's play with the Breds with a 73-62 victory at Johnson City. Reserve Bob Giombetti led the Murray scoring with 11 points.

Murray rallied to tie the score at 66-66 at the end of the regulation time but lost in overtime 83-76 to the Morehead Eagles in Murray. Darnall and Alexander collected 10 points each.

Murray snapped a four-game losing streak the next outing by defeating Florida State 96-71 in their best game of the season. Murray led only 41-40 but scored 55 points in the final half for their ninth win. Wilkins led the Bred attack with 24 tallies while Darnall added 22. O'Riordan contributed 19 points.

Eastern made it two in a row over the Breds with an 88-55 victory at Richmond. Eastern led most of the game and was leading 42-40 at the half. Murray could get no closer than 16 points during the second half. O'Riordan led the scoring with 17 points and Peterson 15.

Murray knotted the series with Morehead for the year with a 73-68 overtime win on the latter's home court. It was the Breds only OVC victory on the road for the season. Alexander was the Racers top man with 23 points and O'Riordan aided with 14. Reserve center John West added 12 big points.

The Racers stayed within striking distance of arch rival Western for three quarters but fell behind in the final minutes to lose 75-62 in the battle at Murray. Darnall, Alexander, and O'Riordan tied for scoring honors for the Breds with 14 points each.

Murray finished their home season with their third overtime defeat in four tries. Middle Tennessee was the victor 84-82 after the regulation game ended 76 all. O'Riordan led the losing cause with 26 points.

The Thoroughbreds ended the year with a loss to Tennessee Tech in Cookeville 90-70.

Darnall playing his final game led the way with 18 markers and Wilkins added 15.

The Breds will lose Alexander, Darnall, John Brooks, and Ken Wray by graduation. The remainder of the varsity plus Gene Herndon, who was forced out of action this year due to a foot injury, will return. The 1959-60 squad will also be strengthened by members of the freshman team and some talented transfers.

John West lets go a two hand shot in the Morehead game.

Bob Giombetti, John West and Frank Smikoski.

The Freshman Team

Like the varsity, the Freshman team was troubled with depth which will partly explain their 6-12 record.

The yearlings played the first half of the season with 12 men and after the second semester started, five of these men dropped out of school for one reason or another, forcing the Breds to finish the year with seven men. Three of these five men were starters, which will hurt any ball club.

The Baby Breds held impressive victories over Paducah Junior College, Union, Southern Illinois, Freed-Hardeman, Bethel, and Middle Tennessee.

Many of the losses were due to the lack of number on the squad. Several of the games were finished with only four Murray men on the floor.

The seven men who finished the year should help the varsity in future years at Murray. They are Billy Ricks, Bill Burhans, Sammy Jones, Bill Lasater, Leonard Mahoney, Bill Rogers, and Jerry Summerville.

1958 Netters Runner-Up in O. V. C.

The 1958 Murray tennis team like the teams of the past few years compiled another outstanding record. The netters finished second in the O.V.C. tournament and won six and lost three in the regular season.

Johnny King and Joe Orr posted championship in the conference meet. King won the class 1 singles championship and Orr was master in the Class 1 doubles championship.

The other members of the team finished in runner-up spots in the tourney. Finalists in the singles were: Robert King (class 2), Monroe Sloan (class 3), and Don Feezer (class 5).

Robert King and Sloan were also runnersup in the class 2 doubles. Beside the OVC the Racers had a very successful Florida road trip, winning three of four matches against some of the "sunshine states" outstanding tennis schools.

Tracksters Capture O. V. C. Crown

Murray States young track team, OVC titlist and the best team in the school's history, can look forward to his season with optimism, as only one performer, hurdler Holmes Ellis, will be lost by graduation.

Coach Bill Furgerson's squad finished the regular season with a 7-1 mark, plus the conference championship. The squad broke nine school records, tied another, and tied one and broke two conference records.

Marshall Gage, the team's leading scorer with 140 points, broke one record and tied two others during the season. He broke Ellis' two-year old record of :24.9 in the low hurdles with a :24.5 time. He also tied the high hurdles record of :15.1 in the regular season and equaled the OVC high hurdles record in the same time.

John Daniels' discus toss of 139'6" in the conference meet established a new record in that event, and Joe Voyles bettered the conference pole vault record with a 12'7" leap. His tie with Robert Inman of Tech erased the mark of 12'6 $\frac{3}{4}$ " which was held by Murray's John Brooks.
